To the Board of Public Works:-

The undersigned represents to this Honorable Board that he is the owner of all the property abutting on Clay Street between Wallace Street and the first alley north; that he is engaged in the manufacture of structural iron and for that purpose has erected shops on his said property on both sides of said section of Clay Street; that by reason of the fact that said section of Clay street has never been in public use or any demand for the same, undersigned has in a way occupied the same for manufacturing purposes without any detriment ^{or} ~~for~~ complaint from the public or any property owner; that said section of Clay Street is of no public utility and neither the public ^{or} any property owner would suffer by the vacation thereof.

THEREFORE, undersigned petitions to this Honorable Board to vacate said Section of Clay Street herein described.

Respectfully Yours,

Ferdinand Meier
